Dean MW Broadfoot,

“Let them first pray together, that so they may associate in peace,” writes St Benedict in his 6th century rule for monastic life.

For nearly 70 years, Pluscarden Abbey has sustained a community of prayer and peace set within the beautiful Moray countryside.

Pilgrims to Pluscarden - Catholic and non-Catholic alike - almost always testify to a sense of interior tranquillity that a visit to the abbey instils or restores.

Whether they know it or not, it is the gentle balm of Christ’s tender mercy they are encountering. A path to paradise, if you like, situated just off the B9010.

I am therefore delighted to endorse the South Range Project at Pluscarden Abbey and assure the campaign of my support and prayers in the months to come.

Yours sincerely,

Leo Cushley
